

TO UNCLE ASS.

On the road of Sunset
you have gone, from the clifs that I have often watched, but I loved you tho you were gone, with undying
blissful love; you were ever kind and always gentle as a lamb, and
my heart always
sings with your fame
and I no we shall meet in heaven never
to be parted again,
