- 9391 US reprint, published by Houghton Mifflin. Undated. £14
Dark green cloth with orange lettering. Bright and clean throughout but with a cracked front hinge.
- The House of the Four Winds* by John Buchan JBJ57/58
First published by Hodder & Stoughton, 1935.
- 2553 First edition with dustwrapper. £85
Green boards have one or two water (?) spots and lightly bumped corners. Spine lightly rubbed at the ends. Gilt lettering bright. Edges lightly browned but o/w very clean internally with a tight binding. Former owner's pencil inscription on F fly-leaf. The d/j retains very bright colours but the spine is sunned and the jacket is split down the front hinge. However, this has been very neatly repaired at some time. There is some wear at the spine ends
- 6481 First edition with dustwrapper. £120
Green cloth, gold lettering; gold JB monogram on front. Bright and clean with just a faint scuff mark on the front. Binding very slightly cocked. The pictorial d/w is complete and has had some professional repairs to a high standard. The spine is lightly sunned as is the rear panel. However, the colours on the front panel remain unusually bright.
- 8910 First edition with dustwrapper. £100
Very bright throughout. Lightly rubbed at the head of the spine. 3 tiny impact marks on the rear cover. Small bookseller label on the fly-leaf. The dustwrapper has a lightly soiled rear panel. There are some neat, unobtrusive professional repairs. Bright, vibrant colours.
- 9185 First edition with dustwrapper. £100
Very bright throughout. Lightly rubbed at the head of the spine. 3 tiny impact marks on the rear cover. Small bookseller label on the fly-leaf. The dustwrapper has a lightly soiled rear panel. There are some neat, unobtrusive professional repairs. Bright, vibrant colours.
- 9107 1/6 novel. Published by Thomas Nelson & Sons, 1939. £10
Red cloth with gold lettering. The book is bright and undamaged. The pictorial dustwrapper is also very bright but part of the surface near the foot of the spine has been pulled away - it looks like a failed attempt to remove some sort of label in the past.
- Castle Gay* by John Buchan JBJ57/60
First published by Hodder & Stoughton, 1930.
- 1202 First edition. £12
Dark green boards with gold lettering have some stains and bumped corners and spine is lightly sunned. Edges and EPP browned but internally clean and bright and binding firm. Former owner's sig on F fly-leaf.
- 5066 First edition. £12
Spine faded and one corner bumped. Internally very bright. Pencil signature of former owner on front fly-leaf. Binding a little cocked.
- 6722 First edition. £9
Very good internally - bright and clean throughout. However, the spine is heavily faded and the boards have patchy fading. The binding is cocked.

5086 First edition.

£15

Light blue cloth; black lettering; endpaper maps. Front board lightly stained. Spine slightly faded with a little rubbing at the ends. Bright internally with intermittent light spotting. The endpaper maps are lightly browned.

6727 First edition.

£12

The spine is faded and worn and there is some wear at the ends. The corners are rubbed. Internally bright with intermittent light foxing. The front endpapers are stuck down to the paste-down but the rear endpaper map remains visible. The hinges are cracked but the binding remains firm.

9403 Early US reprint, published by Grosset & Dunlap, 1922.

Dark brown cloth with black lettering. Some rubbing at the extremities but otherwise very good throughout.

3922 US reprint, published by Houghton Mifflin, 1922.

£10

Green cloth with red lettering and decoration. The spine is sunned but otherwise this copy is in excellent condition throughout.

there is intermittent light foxing. One leaf has a very small tear in the outer edge. Name on front paste-down and the fly-leaf bears a bookseller's rubber stamp. The hinges are beginning to crack but the binding remains firm.

5080 First edition. £40

This copy has a faded spine and the boards have patchy fading. There is a little wear at the head of the spine. Browning largely confined to the outer margins of the pages although the first few leaves are a little more browned and are lightly foxed. Replacement light grey endpapers appear to have been inserted at some time although as these are lightly browned this is probably an old restoration. The binding is firm and overall this is a better-than-average copy.

5081 First edition. £40

This copy has a faded spine and fading around the margins of the boards. A small area is worn away at the head of the spine. Browning largely confined to the outer margins of the pages although the first few leaves are a little more browned and are lightly foxed. Name on front paste-down and the fly-leaf and half-title have an embossed bookplate. The rear hinge is cracked and the front a little tender.

6841 First edition. £60

The spine is lightly faded and there is a little fading around the edges of the boards which otherwise remain bright and clean. One corner is bumped. Internally there is just very slight browning around the page margins. The binding is slightly cocked.

7410 First edition. £40

Bright and clean with an unfaded spine. Lightly bumped at the head of the spine. The hinges are cracked but the binding remains firm, although slightly cocked. The pages are lightly browned around the margins but otherwise the book is bright internally.

8416 First edition. £20

The spine is faded and there is some fading on the covers which also have a few water marks. Internally the book has lightly browned margins and the front hinge is cracked.

8520 First edition. £20

The spine is faded and is split down the rear joint. The covers are faded around the edges and there is a number of white stains on the front. The outer edge of the front cover has a small piece abraded away, Internally the book is sound; the margins are lightly browned and the outer edges of some of the leaves are 'nibbled'. There is a name on the front fly-leaf.

8775 First edition. £25

The spine is sunned and there are 2 small stains on the front. The rear joint has a half-inch split near the head. Internally sound but the pages are lightly browned around the margins. The hinges are cracked but the binding remains firm, albeit slightly cocked.

61299 First edition in photocopy dustwrapper. £40

The spine and a narrow strip adjacent to it on the rear cover are faded, but otherwise the binding is bright and undamaged. Good internally with only very slight browning of the page margins and occasional brown spots. The last 3 leaves are slightly creased in the corner. The book has new endpapers. It comes with a good quality facsimile dustwrapper.

221001 Popular edition in dustwrapper. Undated. £85

Textured red cloth, black lettering. A few very small water spots on the front but otherwise very good throughout. There is a gift inscription on the fly-leaf and a small bookshop label on the front paste-down. The exceptionally rare dustwrapper has a similar illustration to the first edition (men at a dinner table and shadowy horsemen in the background) but is printed in dark blue and white rather than full colour. Some brown speckles around the edges and a couple of tiny nicks and chips around the edges and extremities. Where the price was shown (front and spine) it has been neatly punched out leaving a circular hole in each case. This was a pointless exercise as the rear cover carries a list of Blackwoods 1/- net Popular Novels which includes this title.

3024 Nelson green leather edition, 1935. £10

Lightly rubbed at the corners and the spine is worn at the ends and scuffed. There are small splits at the top of the hinges. Boards coming away from the paste-downs at the outer edges. Internally very bright and tightly bound. Index ribbon has lower half missing.

5079 First edition. £40

Red cloth; black lettering on spine and front. Published in the middle of WW1 using poor quality materials as a result of which first editions frequently have a faded exterior and heavily browned pages. This copy has a faded spine and patchy fading of the boards, albeit less than usual. Pages only lightly browned but

8630 First edition with dustwrapper. £80

Bright and clean with sharp corners and just some light scuff marks on the rear. The illustrated d/w is lightly soiled (it is largely white) and is lightly creased in places. It has been professionally repaired at some time in the past.

Corners and spine ends very slightly rubbed. Internally very bright with no bookplates or inscriptions but there is a small bookseller's label on the front paste-down below the map. The largely cream d/w is lightly soiled and has some neat professional repairs.

8091 Yellow Jacket edition, published by Hodder & Stoughton, 1941. £13

Red cloth with blind-stamped art deco pattern on front; black lettering; endpaper map. This is the smaller size of Yellow Jacket novels. The binding is very bright and is undamaged. The cheap wartime paper is lightly tanned around the page margins and the rear fly-leaf is missing. The rear hinge is cracked. The pictorial d/w (man throwing someone off cliff) is lightly soiled and has some neat professional internal repairs.

- 5955 US first edition. £225
Light blue paper-covered boards with bright blue lettering and black and yellow silhouette illustration. Yellow cloth spine with black lettering. Internally very bright with slight creasing to a few top corners near the front. 2 leaves have ragged edges, probably caused by slitting the page edges when new. There is a name on the front fly-leaf. Externally there are light damp stains on the front board and spine.
- 7196 US first edition. £150
Quite clean but the spine is sunned and the binding slightly cocked. The corners are rubbed, one being more heavily worn. Bright internally with occasional light foxing. The front fly-leaf is missing.
- 7540 US first edition. £180
The corners are worn and the spine is lightly sunned. One of the two front fly-leaves is missing and the other has an ownership inscription. Internally the book is bright and clean.
- 7624 US first edition. £225
The corners are lightly rubbed and the fly-leaf has a tiny remnant of some sort of adhesive label. Otherwise very good throughout.
- 9194 US first edition with photocopy dustwrapper. £225
The spine is a little darkened but otherwise the book is in very good condition. There is an inscription on the fly-leaf and also a small private library label. The book comes with a good quality facsimile dustwrapper.

The Island of Sheep by John Buchan JBJ57/35

First published by Hodder & Stoughton, 1936.

4365 First edition with dustwrapper. £75

Green cloth with gilt lettering and JB monogram. Endpaper maps. Clean and bright internally. Boards have some stains and abrasions. D/w has a number of nicks and small chips but is substantially complete and intact. There is a signature in pencil (indelible?) on the rear panel.

- 9393 4th impression, 1916. £50
 The last impression with the original page size. Bound in red cloth. This is an exceptionally good copy of this cheaply produced book with a good, solid binding, sharp corners and bright covers. However, the spine has faded to a pink shade. Internally there is gentle browning of the page margins but other than this it is undamaged. There is a pencilled inscription on the fly-leaf.
- 5183 6th impression, 1917. £16
 Green cloth; black lettering. Corners bumped and there is a vertical crease in the cloth on the front board running about half way down from the top centre. Rear hinge cracked and binding slightly cocked. The cheap wartime paper is browned around the margins but the text is unaffected. Name on front fly-leaf.
- 7084 6th impression, 1917. £16
 Green cloth, black lettering. Ends of spine rubbed and front corners bumped. Page margins browned and a few page corners turned. Rear hinge cracked. Pencil inscription on fly-leaf.
- 6460 11th impression, 1922. £12
 Old rebind in hessian-style dark red cloth with gold lettering. Faded spine but otherwise very good externally. Page margins lightly browned.
- 7040 12th impression, 1925. £15
 Blue cloth, black lettering. The spine is faded and the extremities are lightly rubbed. Internally bright although the page margins are very slightly browned. The front hinge is cracking. Pencilled name on fly-leaf.
- 6473 13th impression, 1927. £15
 Blue cloth, black lettering. Spine slightly sunned and a little rubbing around the edges. The front hinge is beginning to crack but the binding remains firm. Bright and clean internally with only a hint of the usual browning of the pages.
- 6532 13th impression, 1927. £17
 Textured blue cloth with black lettering. Slightly faded spine and a small bump on the top edge but otherwise very good throughout.

 Faded spine, lightly rubbed corners and a faint mark on the front. Bright internally but for slight foxing on the first few leaves.
- 5638 5th impression, 1926. £12
 Very bright and clean but for light scattered foxing of the first and last few leaves. Inscription on front paste-down.

8565 Revised (Black Jacket) edition with dustwrapper, 1939. £15

The covers have a number of patchy white marks. There is an impact mark on the rear top edge and the corners are lightly bumped. Internally bright. There is a name on the fly-leaf. The d/w has some wear and repaired splits at the spine ends, the rear flap hinge has a one inch split at the top. The rear panel has some old damp stains around the edges.

Comments and Characters by John Buchan, edited by W Forbes Grey JBJ57/23

First published by Thomas Nelson & Sons,

9329 First edition with dustwrapper. £35

Terracotta cloth, gold lettering. The top edge is dark red. Apart from a former owner's name on the fly-leaf the book is very good throughout. The largely cream d/w has a lightly browned spine and is slightly soiled. There is a small closed tear on the top edge of the rear panel.

Highroads of Geography Book IV by various contributors, including John Buchan JBJ57/23

First published by Thomas Nelson & Sons, 1913.

9081 1922 reprint. £12

It contains 2 sections by John Buchan: Switzerland (14 pages) and The Glory That Was Greece (7 pages). There are 16 coloured plates. Lightly rubbed corners and spine ends. A few scuff marks and scratches on the rear cover. Very occasional brown spots inside. No evidence of school use and overall an unusually bright copy.

The Thames Valley from Cricklade to Staines by the Earl of Mayo, etc. Preface by John Buchan. JBJ57/23

First published by CPRE, 1929.

9153 First edition. £30

Grey-green cloth; gold lettering; outer edge untrimmed; 27 pages of illustrations (photos and sketches); 6 ton/village plans; 6 fold-out maps in colour. But for a partly split front hinge and a couple of small marks on the binding the book is very good throughout with all the illustrations and maps in excellent condition.

The Thirty-Nine Steps by John Buchan JBJ57/26

First published by Wm Blackwood & Sons, 1915.

ALL COPIES OF THIS TITLE WILL BE REDUCED BY 15% IF PURCHASED.

70309 2nd impression, 1915. £25

Identical to the first edition except for the designation 'SECOND IMPRESSION' on the title page. Light blue cloth with black lettering. The covers have some water stains and are lightly soiled. The spine is faded, partially split along the rear joint and worn at the ends. Internally, the text is bright with the usual slight browning of the page margins. The binding is cracked and a large part of the text block is detached but all pages are present. There is a gift inscription dated 'Xmas 1915' on the fly-leaf.

9492 US Popular edition with dustwrapper. Published by Grosset & Dunlap, pre-1920. £160

In the early 20th century G&D published Popular editions of novels, often quite recently issued, in a lower-cost binding. Bound in red cloth with black lettering. This edition is undated; there is a pencil inscription on the fly-leaf dated 1921. All the titles listed on the back of the d/w were published before 1920. The book is in very good condition with just slight rubbing at the ends of the spine. The d/w has a piece missing at the top of the spine (including the title), a small chip at the foot of the front joint and some rubbing along the folds. Early copies of this title with a d/w are extremely rare.

9394 US Popular edition. Published by Grosset & Dunlap, pre-1920. £15

As above. The red cloth is slightly rippled on the spine and is creased vertically on the front. The spine has faded and is worn at the ends. The corners are also slightly worn. The rear cover has a couple of white marks. The front hinge is partly cracked and both hinges are shaky. Internally bright with some foxing of the first few and last few leaves. There are pencil inscriptions on the paste-down and the fly-leaf.

- Quite bright externally but there are damp stains front and rear and the cloth is slightly rippled in places.
Ex-library. Spine slightly faded and there is a small mark on the front. Internally very bright but usual library stamps and labels.
- 9304 First edition with dustwrapper. £50
In excellent condition but for occasional very slight foxing. The scarce d/w has some wear and small splits at the head of the spine and is lightly age-darkened, more so on the spine.
- 5641 Large paper, signed, limited edition. £175
This is the large paper edition, limited to 200 copies and signed by JB. This copy is numbered 181. Grey paper-covered boards, white vellum spine, gold lettering on green leather title label. The title label has faded and has a few spots on it. The spine and the edges of the boards are sunned a little. Very good internally. Signed by JB on the reverse of the half-title.
- 6005 Large paper, signed, limited edition. £200
51/200. An unusually bright copy with none of the usual sun browning on the spine. The green leather title label has a little fading. The boards have some faint browning in places but this is barely noticeable. Internally extremely bright and unmarked. Would be VG+ except that the rear top edge has been bumped near the spine causing a small (quarter-inch) split in the edge of the board. This edition was issued with a plain transparent glassine dustwrapper and the browned remnants of this, split into two pieces, are with the book.
- 7103 Large paper, signed, limited edition. £175
28/200. The front has some faint brown spots and there is a small partly faded area on the rear. The title label has partially faded to a greenish-brown shade. The corners are very lightly rubbed. Very bright internally. The fly-leaf bears the signature of Wilfrid Senior who was for a number of years before WW2 the conductor of The Scottish Orchestra.
- 7226 Large paper, signed, limited edition. £180
152/200. Boards lightly soiled and spine slightly sunned but otherwise in excellent condition throughout.
- 8743 First edition with library binding. £10
Library binding in green cloth; gold lettering; red edges to text block. There is a blind-stamped emblem of Bournemouth Public Libraries on the front cover. Lightly rubbed around the edges and the binding is very slightly cocked. Otherwise very good.
- 5259 Second impression, 1927. £12
Name on front fly-leaf but otherwise virtually as new throughout. An extremely nice copy.
- 1193 Revised edition, 1939. £14
Fawn boards/spine generally in good condition except for some water stains on R and part of spine. T/E olive. EPP lightly browned but internally exceptionally clean and bright with a very firm binding.
- 3465 Revised (Black Jacket) edition with dustwrapper, 1939. £18
Light grey boards very clean and internally very good but for intermittent very light foxing. The front fly-leaf bears a rubber-stamped bookplate. D/w has been laminated and is in very good condition but carries what I presume to be a private library number at the base of the spine.
- 4782 Revised (Black Jacket) edition with dustwrapper, 1939. £14
Spine has some brown spots. Inscription on fly-leaf. Slightly cocked. D/w has some rubbing around the edges and the rear panel is soiled.
- 8375 Revised (Black Jacket) edition with dustwrapper, 1939. £20
Very slight fading at the ends of the spine, otherwise excellent. The d/w has a lightly soiled rear panel.

6721 Second impression. £14
Corners and spine ends lightly rubbed. Front has light stain and also a small patch which appears to have something with a very smooth surface spilt on it. Bright internally with intermittent light foxing. Rubber-stamped bookplate on paste-down and name on fly-leaf.

8172 Second impression. £17
Generally bright with lightly rubbed spine ends. Some faint marks (splashed liquid?) on the boards. Excellent internally. Name on fly-leaf.

Montrose by John Buchan JBJ57/23

First published by Thomas Nelson & Sons, 1928.

7376 US first edition. Published by Houghton Mifflin, 1928. £25
Purple cloth; gold lettering; top edge dark green; outer and lower edges uncut; 2 illustrations; 11 maps. Gilt on spine a little dull and front hinge cracked - the binding remains firm. Otherwise very good and particularly bright internally.

9792 Cheap edition with dustwrapper. Published by Thomas Nelson & Sons, undated. £10
Green cloth with black lettering; frontispiece portrait with tissue guard; top edge green, others uncut. Professionally repaired spine which needs a small amount of re-glueing. Speckled marks along edges of boards. Name on fly-leaf. Very good internally. The d/w has a sunned spine and the covers are lightly browned but otherwise it is very good.

60023 Cheap edition with dustwrapper. Published by Thomas Nelson & Sons, undated. £18
As above. Lightly rubbed extremities and the top corners are bumped. Very bright internally, but there is a former owner's name on the fly-leaf. The dustwrapper is lightly marked in places and has some creasing.

61184 Facsimile reprint with dustwrapper. Published by The Mercat Press, 1979. £15
Blue cloth with gold lettering. There is one illustration and 11 maps. The book is as new and the illustrated dustwrapper is in very good condition but for a vertical mark on the rear panel.

4437 First edition. £12
Bound in dark green cloth with gilt lettering and JB sunflower emblem. Gilt top edge. Slight rubbing at the spine ends and a few bumps along the edges. Very bright internally with a firm binding. Brief presentation inscription on front fly-leaf.

4781 First edition. £15
Lightly rubbed at the spine ends and corners but otherwise excellent throughout.

5240 First edition. £15
Internally very good although some page corners are creased as a result of a bumped corner at the rear.

- 9283 First edition. £50
The binding is slightly cocked and very lightly rubbed at the ends of the spine.
- 3694 First US edition. Published by George H Doran, 1917. £25
Tightly bound and internally very clean and bright with lightly foxed fly-leaves. The boards and spine have light rubbing at the extremities but have, as is frequently the case with this edition, darkened in patches from the original light yellow-brown colour to a dark green shade.
- 3917 Early US reprint. Published by Houghton Mifflin, 1917. £15
The spine is sunned but other than this the book is in excellent condition throughout.
- 5127 Reprint, bound in blue cloth. Published by Thomas Nelson & Sons, undated but inscr. Dated 1917. £12
Blue cloth with dark blue lettering. Lettering on spine a little faded and slightly rubbed spine ends but generally very good. Bright and clean internally.
- 2781 Pocket-sized edition bound in leatherette. Published by Thomas Nelson & Sons, undated. £10
Bound in blue faux-Morocco with a gilt top edge. The spine has darkened slightly and there is a little foxing to the edges but o/w it is in very good order throughout.
- 9562 Nelson 1/6 Novel edition with dustwrapper. Undated. £6
Very bright red cloth binding. Page margins lightly browned. Mostly white d/w is lightly soiled but otherwise in good condition.

9267 Second edition. Published by Wm Blackwood & Sons, 1907. £120

The binding is lovely and bright with sparkling gilt lettering. There is a small area near the foot of the spine which has faded slightly and the corners and spine ends are very lightly rubbed. One corner is lightly bumped. There is a tiny white mark at the top of the rear cover. Bright internally with intermittent light foxing.

9266 Second edition in cheaper binding. Published by Wm Blackwood & Sons, 1907. £100

Normally bound as the first edition, this copy has a cheaper quality binding in light blue cloth with black lettering on the spine only. The endpapers are white, not maroon. In spite of these differences it is internally as normal for a second edition. The binding is bright with lightly rubbed extremities and a small bump on the outer edge of the rear cover. Bright internally with intermittent light foxing.

6784 Cheap edition (with additional preface). Published by Thomas Nelson & Sons, 1917. £20

Dark blue cloth, gold lettering. The spine is slightly darkened and there is a faded strip down the outer edges of the boards. Very clean and bright internally.

A Book of Escapes and Hurried Journeys* by John Buchan JBJ57/11

First published by Thomas Nelson & Sons, 1922.

7732 First edition. £22

The spine is scuffed and the corners lightly rubbed. There are some light handling marks. Very good internally but for occasional brown spotting.

9552 First edition. £22

Spine lightly scuffed. Some handling stains. Bright internally. Name on front paste-down.

- 7379 First edition with dustwrapper. £20
There are white spots on the spine but the remainder of the binding is unfaded. The corners and edges are lightly rubbed. There is a name in pencil on the fly-leaf. The pictorial d/w is rubbed around the edges and corners. The author's name has partially faded from the spine. The ends of the spine are a little ragged and there is a small piece missing at the lower edge of the rear panel. As well as some creasing on the rear a large diagonal tear has been repaired externally with adhesive tape.
- 8399 First edition with dustwrapper. £35
There are a few white-ish spots on the binding but far fewer than usual. Otherwise the book is bright and undamaged. There is an ownership inscription on the front fly-leaf. The corners and edges are lightly rubbed. There is a name in pencil on the fly-leaf. Apart from light soiling of the white rear panel the pictorial d/w is in excellent condition.
- 8623 First edition with dustwrapper. £22
Unusually there are no white spots on the binding but there is some patchy fading. The ends of the spine are rubbed and faded and one corner is bumped. There is an ownership inscription on the front paste-down and a rubber stamped name on the fly-leaf. Bright internally. The d/w has some old but neatly done repairs and a little wear at the ends of the spine. It is lightly soiled in places.
- 8914 First edition with dustwrapper. £50
The book is in exceptional condition. But for one tiny speck on the front it has none of the white discolouration common with this binding. The blank endpapers are lightly browned at the margins but in all other respects the book is bright and undamaged throughout. The rear panel of the d/w is lightly soiled and the front flap is price-clipped but otherwise it is very good.
- 8916 First edition in library binding, with dustwrapper. £25
Bound in a circulating library's own binding (WH Smith?) in light blue cloth with black lettering and a black library emblem on the front. The extremities are lightly rubbed and a small area of cloth on the front has lifted. There are two tiny marks on the front cover. The book is slightly smaller than the Hodder edition. The d/w is as the Hodder edition but trimmed to fit the smaller book. The rear panel is a little soiled. The ends of the spine have some old, high-quality repairs. The wrapper has some internal reinforcement.
- 9000 First edition. £25
The spine is a little browned but other than that the binding is very bright with no discolouration or white spots. Very bright internally. There is a small bookplate label on the front paste-down.
- 9182 First edition with dustwrapper. £35
Faded spine but no white spots. Bright internally. The d/w has a lightly soiled rear panel and a few nicks around the edges.
- 9582 First edition with dustwrapper. £20
The binding has scattered small white spots. The extremities are rubbed and there is a brown spot on the spine. Bright internally. The d/w is ragged around the edges and there is a piece approx. one inch square missing at the inner corner of the front panel.
- 9631 First edition with dustwrapper. £20
The binding is bright and free of white spots. The front corners are bumped and there are small areas of fading. Bright internally. The illustrated dustwrapper is lightly soiled and has pieces missing from the foot of the spine and the top edge of the front panel.
- 9969 First edition. £8
Less severely affected by white spots than is sometimes the case. The spine is faded. Very bright internally with a name on the fly-leaf.

3967 First edition with dustwrapper.

£25

As is frequently the case with this title the low-quality wartime cloth used for binding has patchy fading and some white spots. The corners are lightly rubbed. Internally the book is bright and clean. The pictorial d/w has some small pieces missing at the ends of the spine and along the edges of the rear panel but is largely intact. There are a couple of closed tears.

5271 First edition with dustwrapper.

£40

The binding is free from white spots. Rubbed around the edges and spine partially faded but o/w bright and clean throughout. Prize certificate on fly-leaf. Pictorial d/j quite bright but a little ragged in places with an old external repair at the foot of the spine. Small piece missing from one corner.

5602 First edition with dustwrapper.

In generally very good condition but afflicted by the white spots on the binding which commonly occur with this title. Lightly rubbed at the foot of the spine. Inscription on fly-leaf. Pictorial d/w quite bright but has some water stains on the spine and a number of very neat repairs.

6486 First edition.

£12

As usual with this title the cloth has a rash of white spots and the spine is a little faded. Internally clean and bright with all illustrations in good order.

6877 First edition with dustwrapper.

£30

The binding of this book is very prone to developing white spots but this copy has far fewer than usual, mostly confined to the joins between the spine and the boards. There is very occasional light foxing and the front hinge is cracked. The d/w has wear at the extremities and one or two closed tears. There is a one-inch triangular piece missing from the top of the rear panel.

7207 First edition with dustwrapper.

£25

The binding of this title is very prone to white spots/areas breaking out on the cloth and this copy has a white spot on the front cover and a whitish area in the upper part of the spine. Bright otherwise and very good internally. The front hinge is cracked. The d/w has bright, vibrant colours on the front. The spine has patchy fading. The rear panel has a large piece missing from the upper part of the rear panel.

The African Colony* by John Buchan. JBJ57/8

First published by Wm Blackwood & Sons, 1903.

9925 Times Book Club edition, contemporaneous with the first edition. £100

The spine is rubbed at the ends, which also have some tiny splits. The first few and last few leaves are lightly foxed.

9986 Times Book Club edition, contemporaneous with the first edition. £75

The spine is rubbed at the ends, which also have some tiny splits. One corner bumped. The front hinge has completely split at the half-title so that the front cover and spine hang loose when the book is open.

Prester John* by John Buchan JBJ57/8

First published by Thomas Nelson & Sons, 1910.

ALL COPIES OF THIS TITLE WILL BE REDUCED BY 20% IF PURCHASED.

7392 First edition. £25

Bright and clean but the corners are rubbed and, as frequently happens with this binding, the white enamel has worn away from the title label together with much of the lettering. Internally very good but for occasional light foxing. The binding is a little shaky.

8424 First edition. £30

Bright and clean but, as frequently happens with this binding, the white enamel has largely worn away from the title label. Internally very good.

1525 Nelson Uniform edition. 1930. £4

Corners bumped and some scuff marks. Internally bright with a tight binding.

2431 US illustrated edition, published by Houghton Mifflin, 1928(?) £30

The picture on the front board is complete and quite bright. The edges are browned but o/w all is crisp and clean internally with a tight binding. Henry Pilz's illustrations are in excellent order. The fly-leaf carries an interesting history of the book's ownership, mostly in pencil.

3930 US illustrated edition, published by Houghton Mifflin, 1938. £20

The boards are lightly soiled and the rear board bears the remnant of an indecipherable note, a few words only, in pencil. The spine is lightly sunned. Other than this the binding is undamaged. Internally the book is very bright and crisp and all the plates are present. The frontispiece has a closed tear within the surface of the plate (i.e. not reaching to any of the edges) but all the others are undamaged.

6821 US illustrated edition, published by Houghton Mifflin, 1938. £25

Lightly rubbed at the extremities and a tiny split at the head of the spine but otherwise in very good condition throughout.

4918 Illustrated edition, published by Thomas Nelson & Sons, circa 1911. £10

Slightly rubbed at the spine ends and the gold lettering on the spine is a little dull but otherwise bright and undamaged. Internally very good with intermittent light foxing; all plates in excellent condition. Date handwritten on front paste-down.

5036 Illustrated edition with photocopy dustwrapper, published by Thomas Nelson & Sons, circa 1911. £18

Slightly rubbed extremities; binding cracked but still firm; otherwise very good throughout. Inscription on front fly-leaf. Comes with a full-colour copy of the very rare d/j.

7291 Illustrated edition, published by Thomas Nelson & Sons, circa 1911. £20

Lightly rubbed spine ends. Small damp stain on rear. Title page split at bottom 1.5 inches of hinge. Brief inscription on fly-leaf. A nice bright copy.

9419 Small format illustrated edition, published by Thomas Nelson & Sons, circa 1911. £8

Lettering on the spine is a little dull and the front hinge is cracked but otherwise very good.

9453 Illustrated edition, published by Thomas Nelson & Sons, circa 1911. £20

The ends of the spine and the corners are lightly rubbed but otherwise the book is very good in all respects.

- 6935 First edition. £125
Bright and clean but head of spine worn and rubbed at the extremities. One corner bumped. Ex-library. Bookplate of Wigan Free Public Library on paste-down and 3 embossed library stamps in the book.
- 8615 First edition. £150
The spine is rubbed at the ends with a couple of tiny splits in the cloth at each end. The boards are worn at the corners and are lightly darkened with age. There is a very small ink stain near the foot of the front board. Internally the book is very bright with no foxing or brown spots. There is a small rubber-stamped name in the top corner of the half-title. The rear hinge is cracked and the front hinge is beginning to crack but the binding is generally firm. However, there is a little looseness at the top of the front hinge. This copy has a photocopy of the original, extremely rare, dustwrapper. The wrapper that was copied was obviously in a fairly worn state with missing corners but was largely complete.
- 8626 First edition. £180
Very slightly darkened with age and the spine ends and corners are lightly rubbed but otherwise undamaged. Internally bright with occasional brown spots. On some etchings the illustration has produced a faint 'shadow' on the opposite page. Overall a better than average copy.
- 8922 First edition. £190
Lightly rubbed at the extremities but otherwise very bright. Bright and clean internally with occasional light foxing. The binding has recently been professionally repaired and is now very firm. There is an inscription on the fly-leaf. The book comes with a good facsimile d/w.
- 9504 First edition. £180
The covers are lightly stained and the corners lightly rubbed. The book has been re-spined using matching cloth and with the original spine laid on the new cloth. The binding has been repaired and reinforced making this a very nice copy.
- 60006 First edition. £150
Faded spine with tiny splits at the ends. Occasional brown spots internally. Former owner's name on the reverse of the fly-leaf.
- 5957 Second edition. £100
Yellow cloth; brown spine with gold lettering and decoration. Less flamboyant than the usual binding this variant is much more scarce. Very bright externally with slightly rubbed spine ends and a little rippling of the yellow cloth. Bright and unmarked internally but for a small black mark on the last page of the publisher's adverts and lightly browned endpapers. There is a pencilled name on the reverse of the front fly-leaf. Tipped in to the front paste-down is what appears to be a small cutting from a book auction catalogue.
- 9379 Second edition. £130
The gilt on the spine has faded substantially but otherwise the book is very good.
- 9380 Variant second edition. £100
Bound in plain brown cloth with a brown cloth spine, a variation from the normal much lighter shade. The gilt on the spine has faded substantially but otherwise the book is very good.
- 9568 Second edition. £85
Clearly indicated as a second edition on the reverse of the half-title but the binding is as the first edition. Lightly rubbed at the extremities and the front hinge is cracked but otherwise very bright. There is a name on the fly-leaf and the bookplate of Ronald Macdonald, Portree on the paste-down. This is probably the holder of the title 6th Baron Macdonald, of Sleat as the bookplate carries one of the variations of the Clan Donald arms.
